Tribal News

A Letter From Council

Dear Members of the Tribe,

This message will cover some changes that are happening within the Tribe and hopefully clear up some confusion.

This and future newsletters will be leading with the Tribal news. It is still being published through our Members Benefits Service department FCIOO and will cover updating news from RIEOSO, our genealogy research department a 501c3, who is working to complete our FA petition.

We hope that in time members will add to the newsletter with communication from the families with updates on gatherings/reunions. 2016 will prove to be a successful and strengthening year to our people. We thank you for your efforts and support as always.

Respectfully

Tutelo Nahyssan Tribal Council

Special Notes

Condolences to the Family of Darrell Lee Mayle, we mourn his passing on January 2, 2016. Our love and prayers ascend daily to strengthen his loving family.

Our Condolences go out to the Family of Parnell "Sado" Necklace January 5, 2016. Parnell Iron Necklace was the director of the Maza Napin Drum Group and had celebrated with us many times over the years. Members of Council enjoyed visiting with him and his family at the Annual Sundance in South Dakota during 2013. He assisted the Tribe with cultural aspects, spiritual enlightenment and was a true friend and educator. He will be dearly missed and always with us in spirit.

All About Town Celebrations

The Tutelo Nahyssan celebrated National Native American Heritage month by being invited to attend the conference in Cleveland, Ohio at the NASA research center. The guest speaker was from the Water Rights Department from the BIA.

The topic for discussion was the Lake Erie Algae and the cleanup throughout the State of Ohio. The speakers' notes were especially directed with the water inlets in the South East portion of Ohio and the Ohio River Valley area along with the creeks throughout our homeland area in the State.

As Native Peoples we are encouraged to help with the preservation of clean water and its quality for drinking for our families. The Nahyssan will do all we can to assist in this education and keep our people informed.

FCIOO News

Members Benefit Services Department

The new members' service year began on September 1, 2015 and will continue through August 31, 2016. It is important to update your account before open enrollment is closed during the Federal Acknowledgement petition review period. Only current members will be able to update their accounts. Any in-active members need to contact the office before the petition is submitted.

If you have questions please contact Sheila Mayle, Sherry Walker or Joni Mayle or you may call the Bedford office and receive an updated statement.

We will only mail out statements of active members or those requested. It is costly when trying to reach members who have not kept their accounts up to date. You may also stop in the office during any event to check the status of your account. FCIOO has posted a return mail list on the information board at CCC trying to contact all members.

We cannot complete this petition without your support. Thank you for your time and efforts, your payments assist with the financial cost incurred during the Federal Acknowledgement process.
